Police watchdog applauds "exemplary" West Midlands Police

Tuesday 18 November 2014

West Midlands Police is the best force in the country for recording crimes that's the view of the national police watchdog which said crime victims in have total confidence their cases are being dealt with appropriately.

In the most extensive analysis out by Her Majesty's Inspectorate of Constabulary, West Midlands found to have correctly class of offences reported by the HMIC's report - released tod force as having an "exemplar that crime statistics issued b be trusted.

The watchdog analysed 8,000 calls to police nationwide - ir made to West Midlands Pol November 2012 to October 2 at whether the offences bein been accurately recorded.

And they found that only five reports made to the force ha
